What you'll learn

- How to make pop-up campaign overlays transparent
- How to use the transparency slider

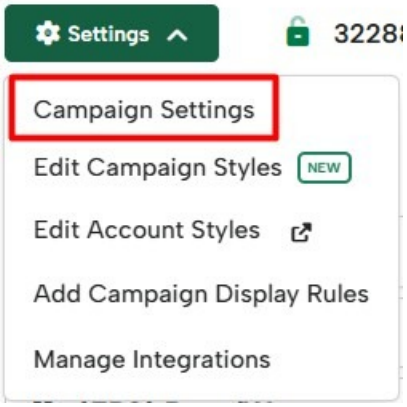

The overlay behind your pop-up campaigns can be set as a solid color or made transparent. To make the overlay transparent, follow these steps.

Giving your Pop-Up a Transparent Overlay

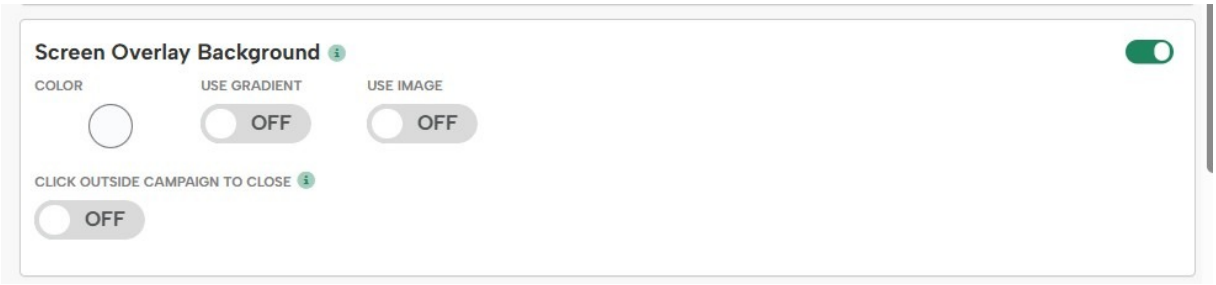

1. Log into Digioh and pick a pop-up campaign to edit:

2. Open the Campaign Settings via the Settings dropdown in top-right of the editor:

3. Enable the Screen Overlay Background settings:

4. Click the Color field to bring up the color palette.

5. Adjust the Opacity slider to modify the overlay's transparency. Click "choose" to save your selection.

6. Once you're satisfied with your settings, you can click anywhere outside the palette to save and close the settings.

7. Click Save and Preview to test your overlay, or Save and Publish to push your changes to your site.
