

How to add Digioh to a Squarespace website

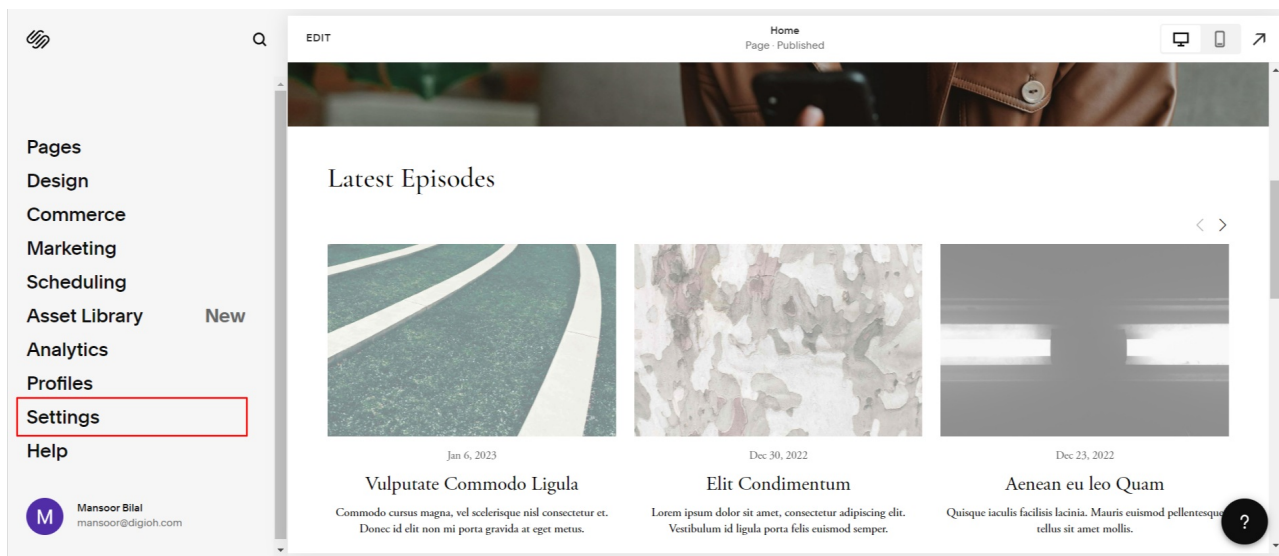

Last Modified on 07/06/2026 2:44 pm EDT

Squarespace is the all-in-one platform with everything to sell anything, empowering the next generation of creators and entrepreneurs.

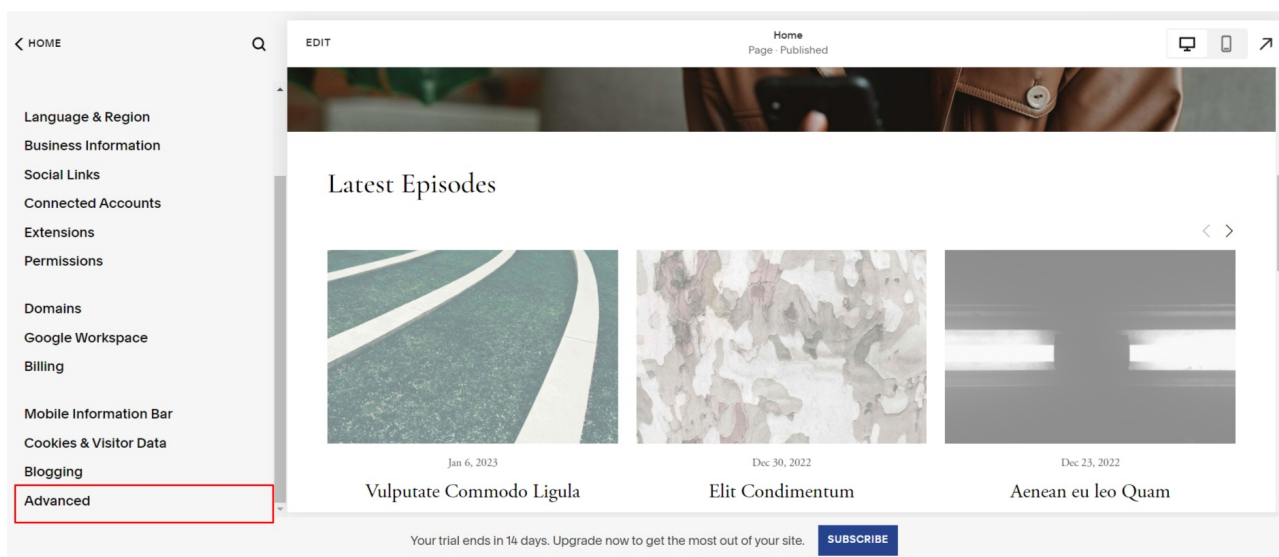

To add Digioh to your Squarespace website, follow these steps.

1) First, log into your Squarespace account.

2) After logging in, click Settings.

3) From the Settings navigation, click on the Advanced section.

4) Next, click Code Injection.

5) In the HEADER section of the Code Injection page, add the Digioh code snippet. (To find the Digioh snippet, see below.)

How to Find the Digioh Script:

1) After logging into Digioh, click on your username to open the dropdown. Then, click the Setup Instructions link that appears.

The screenshot shows the Digioh dashboard interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs: Boxes, Reporting, A/B Testing, Integrations, Files, Help, and Admin. A red arrow points to the user profile 'Mansoor Bilal' in the top right corner. A dropdown menu is open, listing various user settings and options. The 'Setup Instructions' option at the bottom of the menu is highlighted with a red box.

2) Copy the fast activation snippet and add it to the Squarespace code injection section.

Setup Instructions

Global Tag - Runs all Boxes on your site, only add our Tag in once.

- If you are using Wordpress, we recommend installing via our lightweight plugin.
- Otherwise, have your webmaster insert the following code snippet in your website's template or wrapper file so that it runs once for all pages on your site.
- When using the "Fast Activation" or "Compatibility" code, try to place it right after the starting `<head>` tag at the top. When using the "Low Impact" code, place it right before the ending `</body>` tag at the bottom of your pages. For "Google Tag Manager" code, use a Window Loaded trigger.
